

delighted greatly in the society of children, and his gentle words and kind deeds to young people are vividly and affectionately remembered by all who ever knew him.

After the decease of his wife, most of his time he passed in Bath county, at the home of Major Charles Cameron. He died at the breakfast table at Major Cameron's, where the Warm Springs and Huntersville road crosses Jackson's river. When apoplexy came upon him, he was merrily twitting Miss Phebe Woods about her beau, John Beall. This occurred January 1826, when he was nearing his 83rd year. He was buried near Col. William Ervin's. When the writer visited his grave several years since, the spot seemed much neglected. A locust tree stood near it and marked the place. Since then it has been enclosed and the grave marked by a stone. In that lonely but beautiful valley retreat the busy preceded crown, aisle a white trimm miter

red tr

"It rich," man,
"ano
nobod every stint longin no m friend est, c miser years as dis when collec heart, joyne filthy
ish th
a hole
the sp

writer visited his grave several years since, the spot seemed much neglected. A locust tree stood near it and marked the place. Since then it has been enclosed and the grave marked by a stone. In that lonely, but beautiful valley retreat the busy man has found repose, and there “Unheeded o’er his silent dust, The storms of life may beat.”

RISKY.—“It is very embarrassing,” said the heiress to her friend. “Charley Cashgo has proposed to me and I don’t know exactly how to refuse him.”

“Why don’t you tell him you will be a sister to him?”

“Because I just learned from one of his sisters that he is in the habit of borrowing money from her.”

A FARMER who furnishes free apple-jack to his workmen will soon have his hands full.

as disea
when p collect
heart, joymer
filthy
ish the
a hole,
the spi

THE $1,000

Tak

Tak

Taki

Tak

larity.

Tak

Tak

Tak

ment.

Tak

Tak

Tak

pravity

Tak

society

table service was very elegant, and a Prince might well envy her her dinners. She had a well stored library of books in the nicest style of binding, and she made good use of them.

Having such a pleasant home it is not surprising Mr. Warwick should be so genial in his manners and enjoyed the society of kindred and friends, among whom he numbered many of the noblest spirits in Virginia. Jacob Warwick was very jovial in disposition, and extremely fond of innocent merriment. He delighted greatly in the society of children, and his gentle words and kind deeds to young people are vividly and affectionately remembered by all who ever knew him.

After the decease of his wife, most of his time he passed in Bath county, at the home of Major Charles Cameron. He died at the breakfast table at Major Cameron's, where the Warm Springs and Huntersville road crosses

and de tle are are Ch tempt would price accor

The
with is att vals
Whe
was pasto chur purp from enter prece crow
aisle whit trim
mite red t

"I
rich,
man,
"and nobel

age, and died in Lynchburg in one of the military hospitals. His son brought his remains to Tinkling Springs, where he was pastor of the church at the time, and had him buried.

Mrs. Warwick was a person of highly refined taste, and took all possible pains to make home attractive. In this she was encouraged by her husband. When there was preaching or Sunday School at her house, all that were present were pressed to remain for dinner. Her table service was very elegant, and a Prince might well envy her her dinners. She had a well stored library of books in the nicest style of binding, and she made good use of them.

Having such a pleasant home it is not surprising Mr. Warwick should be so genial in his manners and enjoyed the society of kindred and friends, among whom he numbered many of the noblest spirits in Virginia. Jacob Warwick was very

A str
lightn wire in of St. I on the parts u

A y Dussel
She ha
most c
and th overp strain
she fe

A I are 60
ers ho and d tle ar
are C temp woul
price
acco

The
with is att
vals
Whe
was o pasto
churc
pres

the Lightner house, the house of John Bradshaw. He remembers seeing the hands at work upon the Court-house then in course of erection.

In person Jacob Warwick was tall, stoop-shouldered and exceedingly muscular. His grandson, the late Jacob W. See, is said to have resembled him more than any one else in personal appearance. Mr. See married a daughter of the renowned Dr. George A. Baxter, and his son Chas. S. M. See is a well-known minister in Texas. Jacob W. See entered the Confederate service at an advanced age, and died in Lynchburg in one of the military hospitals. His son brought his remains to Tinkling Springs, where he was pastor of the church at the time, and had him buried.

Mrs. Warwick was a person of highly refined taste, and took all possible pains to make home attractive. In this she was encouraged by her husband. When there was Morrill, and, given small Gene doing v languag English idiom.

The once b mond, David brated Scots.

Acc tity o Genev was ec combu coal.

A st lightn wire i of St. on the parts t

A y Dussel She ha most c and th overpe strain tached to Robert Gay and his family, who lived near the mouth of Stony creek. He never passed without calling for a chat. He seemed very partial to "little Johnny," and would insist on taking him home with him to the "Lick." One day "little Johnny" told him that he was now ready to go home with him, but the old gentleman never asked him any more since he seemed so willing to go. John Warwick, Esq., when four years of age came home with his grandfather from Jackson's river.— Ben carried him on a large black mule in his arms. About noon the party stopped at Huntersville near the Lightner house, the house of John Bradshaw. He remembers seeing the hands at work upon the Court-house then in course of erection.

In person Jacob Warwick was tall, stoop-shouldered and exceedingly muscular. His grandson, the late Jacob W. See, is said to have resom-

bus Bure
The S 50 feet
and the Bisho farming Hadley
The
which smoke tralia.
Seve
to stea
repose
Stat
lation ing fa femal
At Morri
and, s small
Ger doing langu Engli
idion
The
once mond Davi

LEWISBURG, WEST

Inter

ER.

of the writer, Wm. T. Price. Andrew Gatewood, upon relinquishing all interest in Marlin's Bottom, now Marlinton, received the Glade Hill estate. Andrew Warwick, the only son that lived to be grown, married a Miss Woods, of Nelson county, Va., and resided on Jackson's river.— John Warwick, Esq., near Edray, W. Va., and Judge James W. Warwick, of Bath county, Va., are his sons. There was another son, Charles Cameron, who died at 14 years of age, while attending school in Essex county. Elizabeth Anne married Col. Wm. Woods, near Charlottesville, Albemarle county, Va. There were no children born to them. Col. Woods was one of the most prominent men and highly respected citizens of his vicinity. He and his wife were particularly kind to their nephews and neices, and did very much for a number of them.

Jacob Warwick never seemed to be conscious of his wealth or superior intelligence, and consequently

Austria's
Mrs. Fillm
Half of th forest clad.

Berlin's
by St. Anna
Only one feet in height One-tenth explored.

Bavaria's
beetles.

Viscount $6,000,000.

The yacht Atlantic in

The Ha steadily dw

There is s ing hypnoti

Queen Vi
time plying

In the rei
were worth

Rain is al other of the

Chauncey
bies have be

In the las made no adv

ER. canonias county.

S Margaret married Adam See, a lawyer in Randolph county, and is the progenitor of the numerous and highly respected families of that name. Nancy married Thomas Gatewood, of Essex county, Va., son of William Gatewood, who married Jane Warwick, whose home was at Mountain Grove, Bath county. Thomas Gatewood lived at Marlin's Bottom, Pocahontas county. There was one son by this marriage—Andrew Gatewood. He was a person of uncommon sprightliness. He was a student at Washington College, and was regarded fully equal to his fellow student, Wm. C. Preston, of South Carolina, in study and oratorical talent in their academic rivalry. Her second husband was William Poage, jr., who was the grandfather writ sinc lect

and it h ma but ma

R ing “C
me refu
“
be a
“
of h
of b
A
ple-j have

by an After
of his
at the ron.
at Maj
Spring
Jackso
came rily tw her be Janua
his 83
Col. wrote since, lected and m it has marks but be man
“
T
ing

S & intelligent and prominent citizen of Pocahontas, filling different positions of official trust during his life. His only child Mary married William H. McClintic, Esq., and yet lives.— Her five sons were educated at Roanoke College, Salem, Va. Hunter and Withrow are enterprising young citizens of Pocahontas, George is a lawyer at Charleston, W. Va.— Edward, a business man at Seattle, State of Washington, and Lockhart is Commonwealth's Attorney for Pocahontas county.

R.
Margaret married Adam See, a lawyer in Randolph county, and is the progenitor of the numerous and highly respected families of that name. Nancy married Thomas Gatewood, of Essex county, Va., son of William Gatewood, who married Jane Warwick, whose home was at Mountain Grove, Bath county. Thomas Gatewood lived at Marlin's Bottom, Pocahontas county. There

Woods was one of the most prominent men and highly respected citizens of his vicinity. He and his wife were particularly kind to their nephews and neices, and did very much for a number of them.

Jacob Warwick never seemed to be conscious of his wealth or superior intelligence, and consequently never assumed any air of superiority. When persons would call him Major it seemed to displease him, and he would say "Don't call me Major, I am nothing but Jake Warwick."— In a controversy about some land on Little Back creek, in Bath county, he challenged Col. John Baxter to fight a duel. This was about the only serious difficulty he ever had with any one. He was very much attached to Robert Gay and his family, who lived near the mouth of Stony creek. He never passed without calling for a chat. He seemed very partial to "little Johnny," and would insist on taking him home with him to the "Lick." One day "little

ing hypn
Queen
time plyi
In the
were wor Rain in other of Chaun
bies hav
In the
made no
In Bu
the pop
The s produce Senat
38 year
tion.
Sever
bread from fo
The O sert tha graves
Will Congre
sus Bur
The S 50 feet
and the Bisho
farming Hadley
The

the period spent at Dunmore. Mrs. Rachel Cameron, the eldest, remembers when the settlers were in the fort, near her home. The fort was located near the site occupied by Col. Pritchard's mill. She was married to Charles Cameron, a descendant of the Camerons so noted in the history of the Scottish Covenanters. He was in the battle of Point Pleasant, and was there called upon to mourn the death of three brothers—slain in that conflict. In person Maj. Cameron was of medium height, tidy in his manners, wore short clothes, very dignified in his bearing, and was never seen to smile after the heart-breaking scenes he witnessed at Point Pleasant—Tuesday, Oct. 12th, 1774. He was a Major in the Revolution and served as clerk of Bath county many years. He reared the late C. L. Francisco, Esq., for so many years clerk of Bath, as his successor. Mrs. Rachel Cameron drew ried a Georg

S. M. in Tex
Confe
age, a of the broug Sprin
churc
buried Mr highl possib
tive.
her preac house press table
a Pri
dinne brary bindi
them.

Than the my,
She is sweeter
Than the rose.

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Greenbrier Independent.

Pioneer History.

MEMORIALS OF JACOB WARWICK
AND MARY VANCE, HIS WIFE.

SECTION THIRD.

This memorial proper will be concluded by some reference to his interesting family. From what has been said of the parents, one must infer that something of especial interest could be written of the sons and daughters.

The children were all born during the period spent at Dunmore. Mrs. Rachel Cameron, the eldest, remembers when the settlers were in the fort, near her home. The fort was located near the site occupied by Col. Pritchard's mill. She was married to Charles Cameron, a descendant of the Camerons so noted in the history old gentl more sin

go. Joh years of grandfat Ben car mule in party st
the Lig
John I
seeing t
Court-h
tion.

In per stoop-sh muscula
Jacob V
bled hi persona ried a d George
S. M. S in Texas Confede
age, and of the n

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

Published Every Thursday Evening.

G. DENNIS.

G. T. ARGABRITE.
DENNIS & ARGABRITE,
Proprietors.

Subscription Rates:

$2.00 A YEAR,
PAID STRICTLY IN ADVANCE, $1.50 PER ANNUM.

Personal & Business Cards

THE

Y
IN C

I
T
C

Marshall, while the humble man, whose hand turned the fortunes of that most eventful day, sleeps in his obscure grave on the west branch of Jackson's river, six miles from the Warm Springs. Were it the grave of Campbell's "Last Man," it could not be in a much less frequented place. Had it not been for the humble services of this man, at the opportune moment, there would have been no Revolution, and without that war, where would Washington and his illustrious compeers be in the annals of their country?

(To be continued.)

HE LEFT IT TO THE COURT.—A short time ago an old negro was up before Judge Guerrey, of Dawson, charged with some trivial offense.

"Haven't you a lawyer, old man?" inquired the judge.

com- writer sees no reason to doubt its This authenticity in the main, it illusthe trates how important results are red. sometimes made to depend, in the orn- providence of God, upon fidelity to the duty on the part of the most obscure, does and it brings to the light the lead-em- ings of God's hand in human affairs.

This is not written in a complain-It ing spirit, yet one feels like saying, e is if this be true, what a comment it hen furnishes on the justice meted out by the the historic muse. The reputed hero s.— of Point Pleasant appears in bronze, d a an honored member of the group call wherein stand Jefferson, Henry and and Marshall, while the humble man, ing whose hand turned the fortunes of ory that most eventful day, sleeps in his obscure grave on the west branch of Jackson's river, six miles from the for Warm Springs. Were it the grave of ve- Campbell's "Last Man," it could not ose be in a much less frequented place.
not Had it not been for the humble ser-going enemy, and Cornstalk was of the opinion that Colonel Christian was at hand. He ceased, in the reach of victory, and took measures to withdraw from the field, unobserved by our exhausted troops. For nearly two hours they had been falling back, and when the flank movement was made to communicate with the hunters, supposed it to be Col. Christian's advance to join them. What fighting occurred afterwards, was with the rear guard of Cornstalk's retreating army of demoralized braves.

If all this be true, and considering the sources of information, the writer sees no reason to doubt its authenticity in the main, it illustrates how important results are sometimes made to depend, in the providence of God, upon fidelity to duty on the part of the most obscure, and it brings to the light the lead-

from 25
see for 1890.

otel,

N,

ERK.

train.
velers
ng to 390.

ER,

S &

y of lity, nn.—

lution and served as clerk of Bath county many years. He reared the late C. L. Francisco, Esq., for so many years clerk of Bath, as his successor. Mrs. Rachel Cameron drew a very liberal pension of nine hundred dollars for many years before her death in 1858.

Her daughter Jane married William Gatewood, a native of Essex county, and a near relative of President Tyler. Their daughter Mary married Sampson Mathews. For many years their home was at Dunmore. Mr. Mathews was often spoken of as a person who bore a striking resemblance to Napoleon, in form and feature. One of their sons, Sampson L. Mathews, was a very intelligent and prominent citizen of Pocahontas, filling different positions of official trust during his life. His only child Mary married William H. McClintic, Esq., and yet lives.— persons crossed the Kanawha about daybreak or a little before, and, while at their work in the hunting grounds and slaughter pens, they heard the firing beyond the limits of the camp, and so far up the Ohio they supposed it to be a salute to Gov. Dunmore, who was expected at any time by the soldiers generally.

But the firing continuing too long for this, it was surmised the troops were putting their arms in proper order for the contemplated march over the Ohio. Finally they suspected it was a battle. Mr. Warwick was one of the first to ascertain that this to be so, and immediately rallied the butchers and hunters, in order to return to camp and join the battle.— This was noticed by the vigilant enemy, and Cornstalk was of the opinion that Colonel Christian was at hand. He ceased, in the reach of victory, and took measures to with-

where Joseph Mayse lived and died, who are certain that Mr. Mayse gave the credit of that cessation in battle and falling back two miles on the part of the Indians, to Jacob Warwick and the persons with him.— According to Judge Warwick's statement, and the writer's impression is that Mr. Mayse's statement was emphatically confirmed by Maj. Charles Cameron, a Lieutenant in the battle, Mr. Mayse often repeated the fact that Jacob Warwick, an obscure private in the ranks, was detailed with a number of others, perhaps fifty or sixty in all to bring in a supply of meat, that rations might be supplied for a forced march to the Indian towns, as Gov. Dunmore had so treacherously given orders. These persons crossed the Kanawha about daybreak or a little before, and, while at their work in the hunting grounds and slaughter pens, they

a renewed attack."—Second series, page 165.

Col. Kercheval, who claims to have derived his information from Mayse and Andrew Reed, of Bath county, states on their authority, "that about two o'clock in the afternoon, Col. Christian arrived on the field with about five hundred men, the battle was still raging. The reinforcements decided the issue almost immediately. The Indians fell back about two miles, but such was their persevering spirit, though fairly beaten, the contest was not closed until the setting of the sun, when they relinquished the field."

There are persons yet living in Bath (1890) and the writer conversed with one, (September 1873,) almost in speaking distance of the residence where Joseph Mayse lived and died, who are certain that Mr. Mayse gave the credit of that cessation in battle

Mr. ble nee in the friend as he He tr and o cles zines. life. ten, banq A had with Club ing said "S been dual ing t will that nize wha " the S

URG, WEST VIRGINIA, THU

reupon his a moment tracted Mr.
upon look-he saw the to reach a off. Ho ans! Inelves dis-
d hastily,
and Mr.
orse sank
ut as Mr. throwing orse rose
his speed,
home to ose that d—Jacob l, James

evening, Lewis seeing no signs of retreat, or cessation of battle, dispatched Captains Shelby Mathews and Stuart, at their request, to attack the enemies in the rear. Going up the Kanawha, under cover of the banks of Crooked creek, they got to the rear of the Indians unobserved, and made a rapid attack. Alarmed by this unlooked for assault, and thinking the reinforcements of Col.
Christian were approaching, before whose arrival they had striven hard to end the battle, the savages became dispirited, gave way, and by sunset had crossed the Ohio. Col. Christian entered the camp about midnight and found all in readiness for a renewed attack."—Second series, page 165.

Stilling-Crouch, Lackey
killed:

Col. Kercheval, who claims to have derived his information from Mayse and Andrew Reed, of Bath county, states on their authority,

D HERI

Fa
tall, frocl
coat crea fash
tie, in h
His eye is fi
Bus
his lool Lor is n
the

N
ble
in frie
as He
and cle

could have been safely detached for a flank movement. Flank movements are only good policy for those who are pressing the enemy, and not for the retreating party. When Cornstalk ceased to press, the victory was decided in favor of the Virginians and lost to him. Had the battle been lost to our people and the army sacrificed, unspeakable disasters would have befallen all settlements, west of the Blue Ridge mountains; the Revolution would have been deferred for all time, possibly, and the whole history of America far different from what has been.

How is that lull in the battle to be accounted for, which resulted in victory to the Virginians? Dr. Foote says, in his account, which is one of the most minute and extended of all in reach of the writer, "that towards

War
Cam
be in Had
vices men Reve
when illus
of th

Hi
A sh up b charg
" I
inqu
" I
" C
" I
" I
one t
" N
the es

ing, October 10th, 1774.

It is a matter of regret that the recorded history of this battle does not accord full justice to the memory of a very deserving person. It is conceded by all, so far as there is any record, that up to the time when there occurred a lull in the battle the advantage was with the Indians.— The question arises, why should a warrior, so skillful as Cornstalk, call a halt in the full tide of success, and suddenly cease firing and pressing upon a receding foe, with victory just in his grasp?

Had it not been for this, no troops could have been safely detached for a flank movement. Flank movements are only good policy for those who are pressing the enemy, and not for the retreating party. When Cornstalk ceased to press, the victory was decided in favor of the Virginians and lost to him. Had the battle been lost to our people and the army sacrificed, unspeakable dis-east, then across Knapp's Spur, along by Harper's mill, then straight across to Thorny creek, through the Lightner place, past Bethel Church, to the Saunders place, on Thorny creek, thence up the ridge to the top, and then along down to the Knapp place, on Greenbrier river, thence to Clover Lick.

The most memorable event of his life, however, was his being in the expedition to Point Pleasant, under General Andrew Lewis. The march from Lewisburg to Point Pleasant, one hundred and sixty miles, took nineteen days. It is most probable that he was in the company commanded by Captain Mathews. This conflict with the Indians was the most decisive that had yet occurred.

It was fought on Monday morning, October 10th, 1774.

It is a matter of regret that the recorded history of this battle does not accord full justice to the men and the noble animal lived long and became very valuable for useful endurance. Most of the way home, the day he was wounded, that horse carried two persons, a distance of thirty miles.

Upon a subsequent occasion he went to Randolph county. It was night when he returned. His horse shied at something in the road, which Mr. Warwick at once recognized as the fresh husks of roasting ears.— The presence of Indians was at once suspected, and upon approaching the house cautiously, it was found that the row of cabins were burned and the premises ransacked. In their glee, the Indians had caught the chickens, picked all their feathers off and let them go. The place had been left in the care of a colored man named Sam and Greenbrier Ben, aged ten or twelve years. Sam made good his escape to the woods, but Ben hid in a hemp patch, so near where J who are the crea and fal part of wick a Accor

ment,
that L
phatic Came
Mr. D
that priva
with fifty ply o suppl
India
sotre perso dayb whil grou
heare

Ben, aged ten or twelve years. Sam-made good his escape to the woods, but Ben hid in a hemp patch, so near the cabin that when it was burned, he could scarcely keep still, his buckskin breeches were made so hot.— From his retreat Ben saw the Indians pick the chickens, leaving their tails and topknots, and laughed at their grotesque appearance. He saw them run the wagon into the fire, after the cabin near the spring had become a smouldering heap of coals. This wagon was the first that ever crossed the Alleghanies. It was brought from Mountain Grove, up Little Back creek, about three miles above where the Huntersville road first crosses that stream going east, then across Knapp's Spur, along by Harper's mill, then straight across to Thorny creek, through the Lightner place, past Bethel Church, to the Saunders place, on Thorny creek, thence up the ridge to the top, and then along down to the Knapp place, on Greenbrier.

LEWISBURG, WEST V

horse showed fright, thereupon his rider saw Indians, but for a moment could not speak. This attracted Mr. Warwick's attention, and upon looking in the same direction he saw the Shawnees creeping along to reach a suitable place to cut them off. He gave the alarm—"Indians! Indians!" Finding themselves discovered, the warriors fired hastily, wounding one of the party and Mr. Warwick's horse. The horse sank to the ground as if dead, but as Mr. Warwick was in the act of throwing off his cloak for flight, the horse rose and darted off at the top of his speed, and carried his rider safely home to Dunmore before night. Those that were wounded all escaped—Jacob Warwick, Thomas Cartmill, James McClain and Andrew Sitlington. Of those on foot, John Cronch, John Huldor and Thomas Lackey escaped. The following were killed: John McClain, James Ralston and John Nelson. When these were attacked they were near the mouth of Windy run. One man was killed running across the bottom. Three evening, Lewis retreated, or ceased, patched Capt. and Stuart, attacked the enemy up the Kanawha banks of Crook, the rear of the and made a by this unlikely thinking the Christian who whose arrival to end the battle dispirited, had crossed the river entered night and for a renewed page 165.

Col. Ker have derive Mayso and county, state "that about ternoon, Co the field w men, the bat reinforcement ou light

Warwick, Thomas Cartmill, James McClaine and Andrew Sitlington. Of those on foot, John Crouch, John Hulder and Thomas Lackey escaped. The following were killed: John McClaine, James Ralston and John Nelson. When these were attacked they were near the mouth of Windy run. One man was killed running across the bottom. Three of the men escaped by climbing the bank where they were; two others, in looking for an easier place to get up the bank, were overtaken and scalped. Not very far from this place is the Laurel thicket where the Ohio scouts killed Colonel Washington in 1861.

=====

VICK
E.

The horse was found to be wounded in the thigh. The ball was extracted, and the noble animal lived long and became very valuable for useful endurance. Most of the way home, the day he was wounded, that horse carried two persons, a distance of thirty miles.

is

Upon a subsequent occasion he went to Randolph county. It was

Col. K have deri Mayse an county, "that ab ternoon, the field men, the reinforce most im back ab their pe beaten, until th they re

There Bath (1 with o in spea where who ar the cre and fal part of wick a Accord ment.

LETTER,

VA.,

JAYNES & S. AND NS.

brilliance of durability, competition.—
sic Books at for Tuning tended to.

R, CTIONEER,

BOOMER.

LOTS

cc. Refer-endence - 80-
W. Va.

ER

AURANT

House
to keep, the public, a

FRONT

they had killed ten times as many white men as any other tribe. They were a well-formed, ingenious, active people; were assuming and impetuous in the presence of others, not of their nation, and sometimes very cruel. It was chiefly the Shawnees that cut off the British under General Braddock, in 1755—only nineteen years before the battle of Point Pleasant—when the General himself and Sir Peter Hackett, the second in command, were both slain; and the mere remnant only of the whole army escaped. They, too, defeated Major Grant and the Scotch Highlanders, at Fort Pitt, in 1758, where the whole of the troops were killed or taken prisoners."

At the time Mr. Warwick went over to Randolph with the commissioner, the season had been inclement, but it was believed the Indians would not be abroad. Indeed, such was their sense of security the party did not think it worth while to arm themselves upon setting out on their business. While in the lower valley about Huttonsville, however, it was reported by one Thomas Lackey, a person of somewhat questionable veracity, that he had seen fresh Indian signs. As Mr. Warwick and his party were unarmed, six citizens

ing, October 10

It is a matter recorded history not accord full glory of a victory is conceded by any record, though there occurred advantage was The question warrior, so shall a halt in the suddenly ceased upon a record just in his grasp

Had it not could have been a flank movements are on who are present for the return Cornstalk victory was decisive Virginians the battle between the army and masters would movements, west mountains; have been decisively, and America far been.

How to the

ended to.
R, CTIONEER,
BOOMER.
LOTS Reference - so-
Va.

R RANT
on House
to keep, public, a ANT, beds and the mar-
d for.
PPER.

and Sir Peter Hackett, the second in command, were both slain, and the mere remnant only of the whole army escaped. They, too, defeated Major Grant and the Scotch Highlanders, at Fort Pitt, in 1758, where the whole of the troops were killed or taken prisoners."

At the time Mr. Warwick went over to Randolph with the commissioner, the season had been inclement, but it was believed the Indians would not be abroad. Indeed, such was their sense of security the party did not think it worth while to arm themselves upon setting out on their business. While in the lower valley about Huttonsville, however, it was reported by one Thomas Lackey, a person of somewhat questionable veracity, that he had seen fresh Indian signs. As Mr. Warwick and his party were unarmed, six citizens and friends of the escort, armed themselves and proposed to go with them to the place where Lackey had seen the Indian trail. Upon coming near the place, Andrew Sitlington's a halt in the suddenly ce upon a rece just in his g

Had it no could have a flank mo ments are o who are pre for the re Cornstalk c tory was c Virginians the battle b the army sa asters wonl ments, we mountains; have been c sibly, and America fa been.

How is th accounted f tory to the says, in his the most m in reach of t of,

URE,
VA.

llace, ER,

EST VA.,

ess of this county upon cience, and owe,

W. VA.

ublic.

st line of esses ever as from 25
nd see for th, 1890.

Hotel,

TON,

son's river, and then returned to Clover Lick. In addition to these estates, ^{he} acquired some others equally ^{valuable}. He endowed his seven ^{children} with ample legacies, and ^{Blues} bequeathed a competency ^{of} ^{five} or ^{fifteen} grandchildren.

Mr. Warwick was an alert and succesful Indian fighter, and had a series of conflicts, narrowly escaping with his life on several occasions; yet he was never sure of killing but one Indian. Parties now living (1891) remember seeing a tree on the lands of John Warwick, near Green Bank, where Jacob Warwick killed that Indian in single combat.
It always grieved him that he had certainly sent one soul into eternity under such sad circumstances.

Owing to his accurate knowledge of the mountain regions far and near, his services were in frequent demand by land agents and governmental surveyors. He and some others went to Randolph as an escort for a land commission in the service of the colony. It was during the period when Kilbuck scouted the mountains with bands of Shawnees and Mlingoes. Mr. Stuart, of Greenbrier, says: "Of all the Indians the Ben, aged ten, aged ten, aged ten, made good h

but Ben hid
the cabin th
he could sca skin breeche
From his r dians pick their tails at at their gr saw them r fire, after th had becom coals. Thi ever cross was brought up, Little miles above
road first c east, then along by H across to T Lightner p to the Sau creek, ther and then a place, on C Clover Lic

The mos life, howo expedition General A
from Low

& CO., Agents
E, V.A.

Forge prop-

MARBLE CO.

of Granite ments and Yard, Lawn Correspon-Lewisburg
KINS, Treasurer.

E.
LAW,
WEST VA, Circuit and
er. Collec-
to. He will the Circuit Montas.

mas,

RE,
VA.

ly the storied son of glass That is mixed with fire; Face uplifted fair and calm, Step sedate and slow,
Fingers holding boughs of palm Such as angels know!

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Greenbrier Independent.

Pioneer History.

MEMORIALS OF JACOB WARWICK
AND MARY VANCE, HIS WIFE.

SECTION SECOND.

The purpose of these sketches is already manifest to the discerning reader—to rescue, if possible, from total oblivion the name and services of an obscure but eminently worthy person. Jacob Warwick was one of the pioneers who made permanent settlements in what is now Pocahontas and Bath counties Virginia and West Virginia.

It has been already stated that he commenced his business life at Dunmore; purchased Clover Lick, where he resided for a time; then moved to his immense possessions on Jackson's river, and then returned to Clover Lick. In addition to these estates, he acquired some others equally as valuable. He endowed his seven children with ample legacies, and he bequeathed a com-

up the bank, scalped. Not place is the La Ohio scouts ki ton in 1861.

The horse w in the thigh.
and the noble
became very durance. Me the day he w carried two thirty miles.

Upon a s went to Ran night when I shled at some
Mr. Warwic
the fresh hu
The presence suspected, at house cantlo
the row of c the promise glee, the I chickens, pi off and let th
been left in man named Ben, aged te made good h
but Ben hid
the cabin th
he could sear
skin breeche

VOLUME XXVI.

Greenbrier Independent.

Published Every Thursday Evening.

T. H. DENNIS.

G. T. ARGABRITH.

DENNIS & ARGABRITH,

Proprietors.

Subscription Rates:

$3.00 A YEAR,

BUT IF PAID STRICTLY IN ADVANCE, $1.50 PER ANNUM.

Professional & Business Cards

PO

A JURY

BY ELEANOR

Tell me, you who

Many years ago

Leaving us to go

In this world

Have you found

Whereof we

Far removed find

Peace your

When you drop

Did there s

Through the

her home and only thing, making the spot at that time, was a peach tree, that had spontaneously grown at the head of her grave. Some day, not far removed,
it is hoped, her many worthy descendants may honor her memory by something becoming the name of one so worthy of everlasting remembrance. Her blood flows in the veins of the Warwicks, Sees, Gate-woods, Camerons, Poages, Beards, Matthews, Moffats, McClungs, Li-gons, McClintics and Prices, in the counties of Randolph, Bath, Rock-bridge and Pocahontas. As one stands near the lonely grave where Mary Warwick so sweetly rests, the pathetic silence seems broken by these words from Whittier's

... A coup, stringent prepared and excellence w close of last 23,000 record are either England, from imp
are eligibl While Shropshi
no certai they can the own and re only s being
The
a pun the shee
will
on

... her home and only thing, making the spot at that time, was a peach tree, that had spontane-
ously grown at the head of her
grave. Some day, not far removed,
it is hoped, her many worthy de-
scendants may honor her memory
by something becoming the name of
one so worthy of everlasting remembrance. Her blood flows in the
veins of the Warwicks, Sees, Gate-
woods, Camerons, Poages, Beards, Matthews, Moffats, McClungs, Li-
gons, McClintics and Prices, in the counties of Randolph, Bath, Rock-
bridge and Pocahontas. As one
stands near the lonely grave where Mary Warwick so sweetly rests, the
pathetic silence seems broken by
these words from Whittier's

... these words from Whittier's

ph county.—
result, Mrs.
and her hus-
attended visions for the Big
and the greatly repara-
us, and that her husband and children, fearing results, carried her to her own room. For four weeks she was helpless from nervous prostration. All her children from Bath and Pocahontas were sent for. She died at the ripe age of eighty years, in 1823, at Clover Lick, and there she was buried.— There were no services of any kind in connection with her burial.

Several years since the writer was shown her grave, on the green hillside, facing the morning sun. The only thing, marking the spot at that time, was a peach tree, that had spontaneously grown at the head of her grave. Some day, not far removed,
it is hoped, her many worthy de-
scendants may honor her memory
by something becoming the name of appearances to the S to their dark faces for carelessness and un ers, to pass them without in any way

so that it soon be to preserve the system of regis Accordingly in La Fayette,
was founded
"American
tion," havin establishment for the re the sheep in Canada. up, string prepared excellen close of 23,000
are e Engl
from

Public.

best line of classes ever ices from 25
and see for 20th, 1890.

Hotel,

TON,

VA.

CLERK.

very train.
Travelers
longing to th, 1890.

FTER,

A.,

YNES & AND

lancy of urability, dition.—
Books at Tuning
ded to.

Owing to his accurate knowledge of the mountain regions far and near, his services were in frequent demand by land agents and governmental surveyors. He and some others went to Randolph as an escort for a land commission in the service of the colony. It was during the period when Kilbuck scouted the mountains with bands of Shawnees and Mingoes. Mr. Stuart, of Greenbrier, says: "Of all the Indians the Shawnees were the most bloody and terrible, holding all other men—Indians as well as whites—in contempt as warriors in comparison with themselves. This opinion made them more fierce and restless than any other savages, and they boasted that they had killed ten times as many white men as any other tribe. They were a well-formed, ingenious, active people; were assuming and imperious in the presence of others, not of their nation, and sometimes very cruel. It was chiefly the Shawnees that cut off the British under General Braddock, in 1755—only nineteen years before the battle of Point Pleasant—when the General himself and Sir Peter Hackett, the second in

across to T Lightner to the Sa creek, the
and then place, on Clover Li
The mo life, howe expeditio General A
from Lov
one hund nineteen that he v manded conflict most dec
It was
ing, Octo
It is a recorded not accor ory of a
is conced any recor
there occ advantage
The ques warrior, e a halt in t

...ounted a large,
...plored boy on
...ll speed and
...in her effort
...ened. This
...Ben," who
...is remem-
...citizens.

...then the
...om one
...rty or
...ent by
...it is
...A
...Mr.
...With
...for
...in

made me proud because I tried to do as she advised me." Among her scholars were Mrs. Mary Gibson, on Elk, Mrs. William Moore and Mrs.
Elizabeth McLaughlin, who were daughters of her friend, Mrs. William Sharp.

The school was mainly made up of Josiah Brown's family, John Sharp's, William Sharp's and Jeremiah Friel's.

The lamented Methodist preacher, Rev. James E. Moore, once belonged to her Sabbath School, and received from her his earliest religious instructions. By common consent it is agreed that he did more for his church than any two ministers who have ever preached in this region.

...concerning it.
It seems to them as a so-game, and euliar to m-west. (Creof the op-front of t superior with the opinion
Mr. War-
fully clmolest
One
the ne

...for a long while it was managed by the Messrs. Sloan.
In the hands of Stephen Porter it was finally lost through financial embarassments.

Upon reaching legal age, and coming into possession of his estate, Jacob Warwick was married, and settled at Dunmore. Just here let it be stated, that when it was decided that Lieut. Warwick was dead, the grandfather of David Bell, of Fishers-ville, Va., was appointed guardian of the children, Jacob and John.— William and James Bell were the sons of this guardian, and James Bell

ER
URANT
on House
to keep,
public, a NT, is and mar-
r.
ER.

son of Mrs. Warwick, heard his cries and came to him. In his efforts to rescue him, he exerted himself so laboriously that he was never well afterwards.

It should be remembered, too, that Mrs. Warwick in her old age, gathered the first Sabbath School ever taught in Pocahontas. In the summer her servants would lift her on her horse, and she would then ride about four miles to a school-house, near where the Josiah Friel cabin stood, now in the possession of Giles Sharp. The exercises would begin ong while

rs. Sloan.
orter it
cial em-

wintering in the limits of this county. It seems to have been regarded by them as a summer resort for fish and game, and to escape the diseases peculiar to malarial regions east and west. Greenbrier Ben often spoke d come, Ja-

d set-

it be that

anders-

ian

—

ne

in

of the opening of a grave just in front of the Chapel, and from the superior quality of the articles found with the remains, all were of the opinion it was the tomb of a chief. Mr. Warwick directed it to be carefully closed, and the relics were not molested.

One of the main objects in having the new house so spacious, was that corn every knew when at the time Collins, v

— a
to one Lick, di It was poorly wicked was d gifts Amo
deed less fee

believed, to pillage and burn. A scout from Millboro warned Mr. Warwick of their movements. With about twenty others he waited for them in ambush on the mountain crest, south of Clover Lick. The fire was very effective and every man killed or wounded his victim. The Indians in their surprise hastily retreated and were pursued as far as Elk Water in Randolph county.—

Upon hearing of the result, Mrs. Warwick at once followed her husband and friends, and was attended by servants, carrying provisions for them. She met them at the Big Spring on their return, and the nearer home party were greatly to her Sabbath from her his tions. By agreed that church that have ever Not a during terial v munion ments that ing room less ch w live on the Jackson river estate.— They moved to Bath, and remained there until the marriage of their son Andrew.

Upon their return to Clover Lick the log cabins were deemed unfit for occupancy, and arrangements were made to build a spacious mansion.— Mr. Patrick Bruffey was employed to prepare the material. He began work in Mr. Warwick's absence.— Mrs. Warwick instructed Mr. Bruf-fey to hew the timbers so as to have a hall or passage, as it was then termed. He did so. When Mr.
Warwick returned and found what had been done, he was not pleased with his wife's plans, and had the felt herself mo-ministers woul

preach. The receive a n
else as valu ciation. S rigid in he
Her brothe
" Mary, I
strict wit
been bla were rig
but wou
you, to have n
care n
Th
from

mankind or they will get nothing at all. In our moments of relaxation, after having acted a serious part for many hours, and spoken only in guarded and chosen terms, nothing can be more delightful than to give way to a gush of heedless prattle with the friends around us, flying from one idea to another, like the bee from flower to flower, lightly touching this, carelessly pressing that, here a little satire, there a little pathos, sometimes a witticism, and, over all, the light laugh that speaks the mind at ease with itself. Who would wish to see a precise, pedantic exactness introduced into converse such as this.

IN order to secure a long life and green old age, bodily vigor should be sustained by regular, systematic exercise, avoiding all sudden strain and prolonged exertion. Especially is this true of running, lifting, climbing, etc. And labor, while desirable in moderation, should never be prolonged till it produces exhaustion.

over price
qual
bree
The Shro
for
the held
The
wi
Mon
The
ev Duk
Duc
Min
His Pri
L
star lan $1,0 to t A
ago
the bree
owe

age of eighty years, in 1823, at Clover Lick, and there she was buried.— There were no services of any kind in connection with her burial.

Several years since the writer was shown her grave; on the green hillside, facing the morning sun. The only thing, marking the spot at that time, was a peach tree, that had spontaneously grown at the head of her grave. Some day, not far removed, it is hoped, her many worthy descendants may honor her memory by something becoming the name of one so worthy of everlasting remembrance. Her blood flows in the veins of the Warwicks, Sees, Gatewoods, Camerons, Poages, Beards, Matthews, Moffats, McClungs, Ligons, McClintics and Prices, in the counties of Randolph, Bath, Rockbridge and Pocahontas. As one stands near the lonely grave where system Acco

La I was
"An
tion,
tabli
for shee
Can
up, pre exc
clos 23, are En
fro
are V Sh
no
the
the anc onl bei
T
a p gous, McClintock and Prices, in the counties of Randolph, Bath, Rock-

bridge and Pocahontas. As one
stands near the lonely grave where Mary Warwick so sweetly rests, the
pathetic silence seems broken by these words from Whittier's Triumph:

“O living friends who love me!
O dear ones above me!
Careless of other fame
I leave you my name.”

(To be continued.)

So much of the enjoyment of life lies in easy, careless conversation that it would be absurd to wish that men should never give utterance to an idea without consideration.— Moralists must not ask too much of mankind or they will get nothing at all. In our moments of relaxation, after having acted a serious part for many hours, and spoken only in guarded and chosen terms, nothing can be more delightful than to give way to a gush of heedless prattle with the friends around us, flying made me proud because I tried to do as she advised me." Among her scholars were Mrs. Mary Gibson, on Elk, Mrs. William Moore and Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, who were daughters of her friend, Mrs. William Sharp.

The school was mainly made up of Josiah Brown's family, John Sharp's, William Sharp's and Jeremiah Friel's.

The lamented Methodist preacher, Rev. James E. Moore, once belonged to her Sabbath School, and received from her his earliest religious instructions. By common consent it is agreed that he did more for his church than any two ministers who have ever preached in this region.

Not a great while before her death, during one of Mr. Loomis' ministerial visits, she received the communion. Upon receiving the ele-

would be so exhausted as to require assistance to arise and mount her horse. It was her custom to go to Wm. Sharp's, dine and rest awhile, and then go home late in the day.— To use the language of her scholars now living, "Oh, she would give such good advice. If all would do as she told them, how well it might have been. She was the best woman to raise girls I ever saw, if they would take her advice how to act, and how to do. She has talked to me for hours, and it was often thrown up to me that old Mrs. Warwick made me proud because I tried to do as she advised me." Among her scholars were Mrs. Mary Gibson, on Elk, Mrs. William Moore and Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, who were daughters of her friend, Mrs. William Sharp.

tions. By common consent it is agreed that he did more for his church than any two ministers who have ever preached in this region.

Not a great while before her death, during one of Mr. Loomis' ministerial visits, she received the communion. Upon receiving the elements, her emotions became so great that her husband and children, fearing results, carried her to her own room. For four weeks she was helpless from nervous prostration. All her children from Bath and Pocahontas were sent for. She died at the ripe age of eighty years, in 1823, at Clover Lick, and there she was buried.— There were no services of any kind in connection with her burial.

Several years since the writer was shown her grave, on the green hillside, facing the morning sun. The only thing, marking the spot at that

promi
Rams much classe pose and v shoul large when a fine
Ma
appe
to th
for c ers,
with so th
to p syst
Acc
La
was
"A
tion
tabl
for she
Can
up.

ered the first Sabbath School ever taught in Pocahontas. In the summer her servants would lift her on her horse, and she would then ride about four miles to a school-house, near where the Josiah Friel cabin stood, now in the possession of Giles Sharp. The exercises would begin at about nine o'clock. There was no prayer, no singing, but she would read the Bible, talk a great deal and give good advice. The scholars would read their Bibles with her.— The exercises would close at two in the afternoon. After this continuous session of five hours, Mrs. Warwick would be so exhausted as to require assistance to arise and mount her horse. It was her custom to go to Wm. Sharp's, dine and rest awhile, and then go home late in the day.— To use the language of her scholars now living, "Oh, she would give such good advice. If all would do the principle of not telling the left hand to know what the right might be doing. Persons in her employ would always be over-paid. Polly Brown, whose lot it was to support her blind mother, received two bushels of corn every two weeks, and no one knew where the supply came from at the time. A person named Charley Collins, who was renowned as an

—— and whose name is given to one of the meadows of Clover Lick, did a great deal of clearing.— It was reported that he was but poorly paid, but before Mrs. Warwick was done with him, his family was doubly paid by the substantial gifts dispensed by her open hand.— Among her many other generous deeds, it is told how a rather worthless character, disabled by frozen feet, was received into her house, after

man
guar
can way
with frou boo toug tha tle
and spe
Wh
ped con

I
gre be exe
and is clin des nev exh

THURSDAY EVENING,

clothed and fed until he could walk.
 His name was Bosier. Mrs. Mc-Laughlin remembers seeing this person crawling up the steps, sitting by the door or reclining under the dining table while preaching services were held. This man afterwards died from the effects of a burning tree falling on him, against which he had made a fire, while on his way from the Big Spring to Mace's in Mingo Flats. George See, a grandson of Mrs. Warwick, heard his cries and came to him. In his efforts to rescue him, he exerted himself so laboriously that he was never well afterwards.

It should be remembered, too, that Mrs. Warwick in her old age, gathered the first Sabbath School ever taught in Pocahontas. In the summer her servants would lift her on

SH
 She coul
 She coul
 She coul
 Sc
 She coul
 She coul
 But she M
 She coul
 And pl
 Flirtin
 I
 She coul
 She coul
 But she
 C
 She coul
 She coul
 And I' S
 She coul
 She coul
 But she
 M
 She coul

m- tional, and during the services often en appeared very happy. As to her ty personal appearance, she was tall, pl- slender and blue-eyed, hair slightly ad tinged with auburn, and when in al health, lithe and agile in her carriage. ar So she was distinguished for syma- metry of person, beauty of figure ge and force of character, all of which ed she retained even to an advanced — age. She was very benevolent, and ad her kind deeds were done upon the ne principle of not telling the left hand
to know what the right might be doto ing. Persons in her employ would a always be over-paid. Polly Brown, of whose lot it was to support her blind er mother, received two bushels of
y. corn every two weeks, and no one by knew where the supply came from nd at the time. A person named Charley pe- Collins, who was renowned as an nd ——— and whose name is given

Elk Water in Randolph county.—

Upon hearing of the result, Mrs. Warwick at once followed her husband and friends, and was attended by servants, carrying provisions for them. She met them at the Big Spring on their return, and the weary, hungry party were greatly refreshed by her thoughtful preparations. She was eminently pious, and was a member of the Windy Cove Presbyterian Church. She never felt herself more honored than when ministers would visit her home and preach. The visiting minister would receive a nice horse, or something else as valuable, as a token of appreciation. She was conscientiously rigid in her domestic discipline.— Her brother once made this remark: “ Mary, I used to think you were too strict with you family, and you have been blamed for it. I see now, you that

ing
roo les chi we age Li
Th
in

sh
si or ti ta g it sc
b o n
v

rigid in her domestic discipline.— Her brother once made this remark : “ Mary, I used to think you were too strict with you family, and you have been blamed for it. I see now, you were right. You have not a child but would kneel in the dust before you, to obey you. I let my children have more liberties, and they do not care near so much for me.”

The Rev. Aretas Loomis came from Beverly, for a time, every four weeks, and preached at the Warwick residence. She was highly emotional, and during the services often appeared very happy. As to her personal appearance, she was tall, slender and blue-eyed, hair slightly tinged with auburn, and when in health, lithe and agile in her carriage. So she was distinguished for symmetry of person, beauty of figure and force of character, all of which gave the enterprise her personal attention. Quite a number of interesting incidents are given by tradition, illustrating the character of Mrs. Warwick. While renting Clover Lick, her husband and others were making hay. A shower of rain came up very suddenly and dampened their guns and horse pistols. Late in the afternoon the men fired them off, so as to load them with fresh charges. Some one hearing the report of firearms in quick succession, brought word to Mrs.

Warwick, at Dunmore, that the Indians were fighting the men at the Lick. She at once mounted a large, black stallion, put a colored boy on behind, and went at full speed and swam the swollen river in her effort to see what had happened. This colored boy was old "Ben," who died at Clover Lick, and is remembered by many of the older citizens.
Upon another occasion, when the colored boy was old "Ben," who died at Clover Lick, and is remembered by many of the older citizens. Upon another occasion, when the Shawnees were returning from one of their raids to the east, forty or fifty of their warriors were sent by Clover Lick with the intention, it is believed, to pillage and burn. A scout from Millboro warned Mr. Warwick of their movements. With about twenty others he waited for them in ambush on the mountain crest, south of Clover Lick. The fire was very effective and every man killed or wounded his victim. The Indians in their surprise hastily retreated and were pursued as far as Elk Water in Randolph county.— Upon hearing of the result, Mrs. Warwick at once followed her husband and friends, and was attended by servants carrying provisions for

daug
liam
T
of Sha
mia
T
Re
to fro tio ag ch
ha
L
du ter
mu
me
tha
ing
roc
les

ravines, keeping along high points and crests of ridges so as to be more secure from ambushades and Indian attacks. The original way out from Clover Lick, going east, after crossing the Greenbrier, near the mouth of Clover creek, avoided Laurel run, kept along the high point leading down to the river, and passed close by the McCutchen residence. Mrs.
Warwick had the first road cut out, up the Laurel Run, in order to bring the lumber for the new house from Mr. Wooddell's in the Pine Woods, now Green Bank and vicinity. She gave the enterprise her personal attention. Quite a number of interesting incidents are given by tradition, illustrating the character of Mrs. Warwick. While renting
Clover Lick, her husband and others
were making hay. A shower of rain came up very suddenly and

WEST VIRGINIA, TH

and it might be used for preaching services, and there was preaching there more frequently than anywhere else in this region, during a number of years. This historic mansion was finally removed to give place to the handsome residence reared by Dr.
Ligon, and which was burned in 1884.

The main route for emigration from Maryland, Pennsylvania and other points north and northeast passed by Clover Lick to Kentucky and Ohio. As many as forty and fifty would be entertained over night.
This made Clover Lick one of the most public and widely known places in the whole country. The approach from the east, avoided hollows and
ravines, keeping along high points

have a hall or passage, as it was then termed. He did so. When Mr. Warwick returned and found what had been done, he was not pleased with his wife's plans, and had the logs changed accordingly. Mr. Bruffey hewed the logs and dressed the plank, but did not build the chimneys. Mr. Wooddell, near Green Bank, furnished the plank for sixty pounds, (nearly three hundred dollars.) The nails were forged by hand at the Warm Springs. Several mounds have been discovered near Clover Lick. In searching for material for the foundation of the large new house, the builders gathered some nice stones from a rock pile.— They found human remains, and when Mr. Warwick heard of it, he emphatically ordered the stones to be replaced, and told them not to molest anything that looked like a burial place. There are no traces of the Shawnee or Mingo Indians ever

They found human remains, and when Mr. Warwick heard of it, he emphatically ordered the stones to be replaced, and told them not to molest anything that looked like a burial place. There are no traces of the Shawnee or Mingo Indians ever wintering in the limits of this county. It seems to have been regarded by them as a summer resort for fish and game, and to escape the diseases peculiar to malarial regions east and west. Greenbrier Ben often spoke of the opening of a grave just in front of the Chapel, and from the superior quality of the articles found with the remains, all were of the opinion it was the tomb of a chief. Mr. Warwick directed it to be carefully closed, and the relics were not molested.

One of the main objects in having the new house so spacious, was that

isfactorily arranged, Mr. Warwick moved to Clover Lick, and lived in a row of cabins. After a few years, he and Mrs. Warwick thought it might be better for their children to live on the Jackson river estate.— They moved to Bath, and remained there until the marriage of their son Andrew.

Upon their return to Clover Lick the log cabins were deemed unfit for occupancy, and arrangements were made to build a spacious mansion.— Mr. Patrick Bruffey was employed to prepare the material. He began work in Mr. Warwick's absence.— Mrs. Warwick instructed Mr. Bruffey to hew the timbers so as to have a hall or passage, as it was then termed. He did so. When Mr. Warwick returned and found what had been done, he was not pleased with his wife's plans, and had the logs changed accordingly. Mr. Bruffey hewed the logs and dressed weary, refresh-tions. was a Presby

felt he minist preach receiv
else as ciation rigid
Her b “Ma strict been were but w
you,
have care
The
from week resid

was going were slain by Indians near Sewell Mountain. When Mr. Warwick and those with him came up and saw their slain friends, all returned home. Mrs. Warwick thereupon became so unwilling to emigrate from her Pocahontas home, that her husband concluded to exchange his Kentucky possessions with one Alexander Dunlap for a portion of the Clover Lick lands. The Dunlap patent called for four hundred acres, the actual survey made six hundred.— There was a suit between Lewis and Dunlap about this possession. When matters as to these lands became satisfactorily arranged, Mr. Warwick moved to Clover Lick, and lived in a row of cabins. After a few years, he and Mrs. Warwick thought it might be better for their children to live on the Jackson river estate.— They moved to Bath, and remained there until the marriage of their son Andrew.

der Hall came to Dunmore to see with Mr. Warwick, and proposed to sell ing this land to provide means to send succ his refugee son to Kentucky so as to War elude arrest. Mr. Warwick had sent diar out one hundred head of cattle to be Lie wintered in the same brakes. This bla herd was taken by Hall as part pay- beh ment for the Jackson river lands.— swe The cattle rated at eight pounds a to head, (about forty dollars.) The col Clover Lick property was rented die from the Lewises. The accounts from ben Kentucky were so flattering that Up Mr. Warwick decided to settle there. Sha He actually set out for the purpose of fif of locating and securing a place for Clor a new home. The persons in ad- bel vance of the party with which he see was going were slain by Indians near W Sewell Mountain. When Mr. War- ab wick and those with him came up was the father of Wm. A. Bell and David A. Bell, well remembered citizens of Augusta county.

Dunmore was Mr. Warwick's first home after his marriage. His wife was Miss Vance, daughter of Col. John Vance, of North Carolina. He died on Back Creek, at Mountain Grove, Bath county, Va. Colonel Vance's family moved to Ohio, except Samuel Vance, Mrs. Warwick and Mrs. Hamilton. The last named was the mother of Rachel Terrell, of the Warm Springs, and Esq. John Hamilton of Bath County. Governor Vance, of Ohio, and Senator Zeb. Vance, of North Carolina, are of the same family connection. The Vances, originally, were from Opequon, near Winchester, Virginia.

In business trips to Richmond, to sell horses or cattle, Mr. Warwick formed the acquaintance of Daniel Warwick, a commission merchant, who attended to business for Mr. Warwick, and thus became mutually interested and were able to trace a common ancestry. This merchant is an ancestor of Senator John W.

it might be used for various purposes, and then more frequent in this region, years. This finally removed to a handsome residence at Ligon, and died in 1884.

The main road from Maryland to other points passed by Clover and Ohio. A party of fifty would be met here. This made Clover the most public place in the whole country from the east, the ravines, keeping the crests of ridges secure from attacks. The road from Clover Lick, going through the Greenbrier of Clover creek kept along the ridge down to the river by the McCarty sell horses or cattle, Mr. Warwick secured the acquaintance of Daniel Warwick, a commission merchant, who attended to business for Mr. Warwick, and thus became mutually interested and were able to trace a common ancestry. This merchant is an ancestor of Senator John W. Daniel, the renowned eulogist of Lee and Davis. Mr. Warwick remained at Dunmore a number of years. His children were all born there. He was industriously and successfully occupied in accumulating lands, and managing immense herds of cattle and droves of horses. His possessions on Jackson's river were purchased from a certain Alexander Hall, of North Carolina.—Mr. Hall moved from the Byrd place to Judge Warwick's. One of his sons, being charged with horse theft, the penalty being death by hanging, fled to Bath. The elder Hall came to Dunmore to see Mr. Warwick, and proposed to sell

Elizabeth, Jacob and John. After operating extensively in lands, and securing the Dunmore property in his own name, Lieut. Warwick concluded to visit England. In making arrangements for his absence, he sent Charles and Elizabeth to Williamsburg to be educated, while Jacob and John remained with their mother in Augusta county. Lieut. Warwick never returned, and being heard of no more, he was given up for dead. In the meanwhile Mrs. Warwick settled on the Dunmore property, had it secured by deed to Jacob, and afterwards married Robert Sitlington, but remained at Dunmore a number of years after her second marriage. Jacob Warwick seems to have remembered but little of his own father, and always cherished the highest filial regard for Mr. Sitlington. When Jacob attained his majority, Mr. Sitlington moved to his own property near old Millboro, the estate now occupied (1891) by Mrs. Dickinson, daughter of the late Andrew Sitlington, Esq. Upon her decease Mrs. Sitlington left a bequest of one thousand dollars to Windy occupancy, made to be Mr. Patrie to prepare work in Mrs. Warwick to have a half termed. Warwick had been with his wlogs ch Bruffey the plank, neys. Mr Bank, fur pounds, (lars.) The at the mounds Clover L material for new house some nice They found when Mr. emphatic be replaced molest majority, Mr. Sitlington moved to his own property near old Millboro, the estate now occupied (1891) by Mrs. Dickinson, daughter of the late Andrew Sitlington, Esq. Upon her decease Mrs. Sitlington left a bequest of one thousand dollars to Windy Cove church, the annual interest of which was to be paid to the pastor of that congregation. For a long while it was managed by the Messrs. Sloan. In the hands of Stephen Porter it was finally lost through financial embarrassments.

Upon reaching legal age, and coming into possession of his estate, Jacob Warwick was married, and settled at Dunmore. Just here let it be stated, that when it was decided that Lieut. Warwick was dead, the grandfather of David Bell, of Fishersville, Va., was appointed guardian of the children, Jacob and John.—William and James Boll were the sons of this guardian, and James Bell new house some nice. They found when Mr. emphatic be replaced molest and burial place the Shaw wintering. It seems them as game, and peculiar to west. G of the front of superior with the opinion Mr. War fully clothed molest One of the new

The editor and his assistants will travel not far from the head.

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Greenbrier Independent.

Pioneer History.

MEMORIALS OF JACOB WARWICK
AND MARY VANCE, HIS WIFE.

SECTION FIRST.

The compiler of these memorials, deeply impressed that something should be attempted to perpetuate the memory of these persons, has availed himself of such facilities as have been in reach. He is largely indebted to Messrs. John Warwick, Esq., Judge John W. Warwick and Mrs. Elizabeth McLaughlin, for the information from which these sketches are compiled.

These gentlemen are the grandsons of Jacob Warwick. Mrs. McLaughlin, a daughter of William Sharp, lived with Mrs. Warwick at intervals, as a friend and visitor in the family, and for whom Mrs. Warwick manifested special attachment.

his sons,
theft, the hanging, der Hall
Mr. War
this land his refug elude arr out one wintered herd wa
ment for
The catt
head, Clover
from the Kentuck
Mr. Wa
He actu
of locat a new vance was goi Sewell
wick an and saw turned upon be from he

FEER, WEST VA., business of this county upon
pericueco, and

OWE,
W. VA.
Public.

est line of lasses ever es from 25
and see for oth, 1890.

Hotel,

TION,

VA.
CLERK.

any train.
Travelers
ing to 1890.

FEER,

wick manifested special attachment.
The father of Jacob Warwick came to Augusta county, from Williamsburg, Virginia, during colonial times, between 1740-50. He was a Lieutenant in the service of the British Crown, and was employed in surveying and locating land grants in Augusta county, which county included territory of which States have since been formed.

Lieutenant Warwick located and occupied the Dunmore property for his own use. He married a Miss Dunlap, near Middlebrook. Lieutenant Warwick was one of the English gentry whose families settled in Virginia in consequence of political reverses in England, and whose history is so graphically given in Thackeray's Virginians.

There were four children—Charles, Elizabeth, Jacob and John. After operating extensively in lands, and securing the Dunmore property in his own name, Lieut. Warwick concluded to visit England. In making arrangements for his absence, he sent Charles and Elizabeth to Williamsburg to be educated, while Jacob and John remained with their mother in Augusta county. Lieut. Warwick upon became from her P husband co Kentucky

ander Dun Clover Liel
ent called f actual surv
There was Dunlap ab matters as isfactorily moved to a row of c he and M might be l
live on the They mov
there unt
son Andre

Upon th
the log ca occupancy made to b
Mr. Patri
to prepare work in Mrs. War
fey to he have a hal termed.
Warwic
had been

VOLUME XXV L.

Greenbrier Independent.

Published Every Thursday Evening.

T. H. DENNIS. G. T. ARGABRITE.
DENNIS & ARGABRITE,
Proprietors.

Subscription Rates:

$2.00 A YEAR,

BUT IF PAID STRICTLY IN ADVANCE, $1.50 PER ANNUM.

Professional & Business Cards

A MO

BY

" Good-mo
the fol
I owe you though
And Jones is his
I shut dow
coaxe

And here
pened
I thought was no less brave and lost his life near Middletown, Virginia, while on a scout.

The surviving sons of Col. Poage Messrs. John Robert and Quincy Woods are highly esteemed citizens and prosperous farmers on the grand old homestead near Clover Lick.

John W. Warwick, Esq., near Edray, married the second time Miss Caroline Craig, youngest daughter of Mr. George E. Craig, merchant in Huntersville, a Ruling Elder in his church and a most estimable christian gentleman.

Miss Emma Warwick, a distinguished and successful teacher, Mrs. Earnest Moore, of Glade Hill, and Mrs. Dr. Lockridge, of Driscoll, are their daughters. Captain John Warwick, merchant at Hinton, and Mr. George Warwick, of Edray, are their sons.

Mrs. Mary V. Moffett's youngest daughter, Rachel, became Mrs. Dr. McChesney, Lewisburg, Greencubrier

As w

We sta
We t
It seem But w le
'Til

THE
TO

Or tire sent to t
F. I othe
J. C
said

M
com brie ingl
can ever mer

FINIA, THURSDAY EVENING

ries. The wood, was wick Reg.

1 in Rally

Mrs. Dr.

ck, in Po-

ried the

in Poage.

survived

morning

a day.—

requested

yard be-sing her

known.

me?

ay.

ghter.

ed to

Wood, are soldiers but put them to work on fortifications.

Major Dawson, a son-in-law, was a member of the Southern provisional Congress.

Col. Wm. Woods Poage, married Miss Julia Callison, of Locust, and settled at Marlin's Bottom. His later years were passed near Clover Lick.
He was an energetic and prosperous farmer, and stock dealer. He served many years as a member of the Court. Two of his sons—Henry Moffett and William Anthony—were slain in the war. Henry Moffett was a lieutenant of cavalry and was recklessly daring. He was killed near Jack Shop. William Anthony was no less brave and lost his life near Middletown, Virginia, while on a scout.

The surviving sons of Col. Poage Messrs. John Robert and Quincy Woods, are likewise engaged at prisoner at Point Lookout July 6th, 1864. The only surviving sister is Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, whose husband Andrew M. McLaughlin, Esq., once owned the farm on which the proposed city of Marlinton is projected. They now reside near Lewisburg, West Virginia.

Elizabeth Woods Poage, married Mr. Col. Joel Mathews, of Selma, Alabama. A sad mortality attended her family, as few or none survive.

Col. Mathews was an extensive planter and owned two or three thousand slaves. He tendered a colored regiment of eleven hundred able-bodied men to the Confederate Congress, but the Government was too punctilious to receive them as Edray, married the second time Miss Caroline Craig, youngest daughter of Mr. George E. Craig, merchant in Huntersville, a Ruling Elder in his church and a most estimable christian gentleman.

Miss Emma Warwick, a distinguished and successful teacher, Mrs. Earnest Moore, of Glade Hill, and Mrs. Dr. Lockridge, of Driscoll, are their daughters. Captain John Warwick, merchant at Hinton, and Mr. George Warwick, of Edray, are their sons.

Mrs. Mary V. Moffett's youngest daughter, Rachel, becam Mrs. Dr. McChesney, Lewisburg, Greenbrier county, West Virginia.

He Milked the Cows.

AN INCIDENT OF THE DAYS WHEN CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE HUSTLED FOR VOTES.

a lawyer, ex-Speaker of the West Virginia Legislature, and at the present time a distinguished journalist in Portland, Oregon.

One of her daughters, Mary Evelina, was married to Col. G. W. Thompson, a Confederate officer, who now resides in New York, employed in the management of the Standard Oil Company. Col. Thompson's sister is Mrs. Senator J. N. Camden.

Margaret Davies Peage married Mr. James A. Price and lived at Marlin's Bottom.

Of their eldest son, Wm. T. Price, the compiler of these sketches no special mention need be made.

James, Woods, Calvin and Andrew were in the Confederate service.

James was a prisoner at Camp Chase for a long time. Calvin was twice wounded. Woods was a Lieutenant of cavalry. Andrew died a prisoner at Point Lookout July 6th, 1864. The only surviving sister is Vance Poage, who is said to have borne a striking resemblance to her good mother, Mary Warwick, was first married to Robert Beale, Esq., of Botetourt county, and resided on Elk, where he died leaving one child, Margaret Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Dr. Geo. B. Moffett, one of her sons. James Moffett is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company in New York. It was at her son's home Mrs. Moffett died a few years since.

Mrs. Beale was married the second time to Henry M. Moffett, Esq., the second Clerk of Pocahontas, and who was a most excellent man in all respects. At one time he was one of the most influential men in the county. Their only son that survived them was the Hon. Geo. H. Moffett, a lawyer, ex-Speaker of the West Virginia Legislature, and at the present time a distinguished Journalist in Portland, Oregon.

One of her daughters, Mary Evelina, was married to Col. G. W. Thompson, a Confederate officer.

There w to kiss, no no sons to dates reso
their min somethin
self the
"old lad

Mr. H
and act, cows, let own han render might Scott w

Jones and, cas
turn hi
the wat was a g was off taking that she could stances

Mr. I
a glanc
when smile h oppon
Jones h
the bri
a spring superio

the first intimation of her son's death was the newly prepared grave, and the arrival of the body for burial. Her other sons—Charles, John, Wallace and Edwin—were Confederate soldiers, distinguished for their fidelity to duty, and are all highly intelligent, much esteemed and influential citizens, residing in the Little Levels of Pocahontas.

Mrs. Alvin Clarke, and Mrs. George McNeel, near Hillsboro, and Mrs. Maggie Livisay, near Falling Spring, Greenbrier county, are her daughters. The second daughter, Mary Vance Poage, who is said to have borne a striking resemblance to her good mother, Mary Warwick, was first married to Robert Beale, Esq., of Botetourt county, and resided on Elk, where he died leaving one child, Margaret Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Dr. Geo. B. Moffett, one of her sons. James Moffett is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company in New York. It was at her son's home Mrs. Moffett died a few years goods were of some value. The Scotch servant. Mr. H. make a this fault power a Mr. Jou go to an Mr. Sec known "boss"

The received, himself his good cows, formed meal. Ther to kiss, no sons dates r their u someth self t "old l

Mr. and ac cows, own h render might one of nd spent Pulaski

a well Ruling Church. married
r Green
Mrs.
Spring,
of his
, Esq.,
is his
, near grand-
aws.
mar-
reenstima-
w oc-Spe-
and rmer
ND
d to

Art Thou the man that died for me?
The secret of Thy love unfold.
With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day."

Mrs. Poage's eldest daughter, Rachel Cameron, was married to Josiah Beard, Esq., of Locust, Pocahontas county. At 18 years of age Mr. Beard was a Ruling Elder in his church, and he was the first Clerk of Pocahontas Court. During the late war, when over seventy years of age, he was taken prisoner by Federal troops. Something was said to hurt his feelings and he challenged the whole squad to single combat. Their family numbered eight sons and three daughters. Hon. Wm. T. Beard, the elderst, was very liberally educated and became an honored, influential citizen. He was elected to the West Virginia Legislature, but was not permitted to serve, as he could not conscientiously take the prescribed oath. His two sons, Edgar and Leigh, reside in the Little Levels. Edgar is a commissioner of the Court and served a term as pre-

was no
near M a scout
The Messrs
Woods and pr
old ho
Job
Edray
Caroli
Mr. G Hunt
churc
gentl Mi
guish
Earn Mrs. their wick Geor
sons.
Mr
daug McCl
coun

could not conscientiously take the prescribed oath. His two sons, Edgar and Leigh, reside in the Little Levels. Edgar is a commissioner of the Court and served a term as presiding officer. Leigh is a prosperous young citizen.

Henry Moffett Beard was a Lieut. in the Confederate service, and was for years among the most prosperous Pocahontas farmers. He died recently, lamented by an interesting family and a wide circle of attached friends. Samuel J. Beard, a prosperous farmer, resides in Missouri.

Joel Early Beard died in the war. His mother came to church one Saturday morning, of a sacramental occasion to the old brick church, and the first intimation of her soldier son's death was the newly prepared grave, and the arrival of the body for burial. Her other sons—Charles, John, Wallace and Edwin—were Confederate soldiers, distinguished for their fidelity to duty, and are all highly intelligent, much esteemed and influential citizens.

Mrs. Ma daughter, McChesney
county, W

He M

AN INCIDENT
CANE

In on
Mr. Har
stumped spent th
houses.

Late o day's rid rein bef
Mr. Scot
acknowl
trict, b goods w of some
The Scot
servant.

Mr. H
make a this fam power at
Mr. Jone go to any who is minis-coun-

Eliza-
rried
well, Hull
dred

Mc-citi-
not ew-hur

lar-
of ent ski vell
ing
ch.
ed
en

him—Hannah and Charles. The daughter, Hannah Gatewood, was married to John W. Warwick Esq. Her only surviving child is Sally Gatewood, who became Mrs. Dr. John Ligon, of Clover Lick, in Pocahontas.

Mrs. Gatewood was married the second time to Major William Poage. Four daughters and one son survived her. Mrs. Poage died one morning just at the dawning of the day.—Feeling death near she requested Jennie Johnson, who afterward became Mrs. Jennie Lamb, to sing her favorite hymn :

“Come, O Thou traveler unknown, Whom still I hold but cannot see.
Art Thon the man that died for me?
The secret of Thy love unfold.
With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day.”

Mrs. Poage's eldest daughter, Rachel Cameron, was married to Josiah Beard, Esq., of Locust, Pocahontas county. At 18 years of soldiers b fortificati Major

a memb sional Co
Col. W
Miss Ju settled a years w
He was farmer, many y
Court.
Moffett
slain in was a li reckless near Ja
was no
near M
a scout.
The s Messrs.
Woods
and pro

Of their eldest son, Wm. T. Price, the compiler of these sketches no special mention need be made.

James, Woods, Calvin and Andrew were in the Confederate service.

James was a prisoner at Camp Chase for a long time. Calvin was twice wounded. Woods was a Lieutenant of cavalry. Andrew died a prisoner at Point Lookout July 6th, 1864. The only surviving sister is Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, whose husband Andrew M. McLaughlin, Esq., once owned the farm on which the proposed city of Marlinton is projected. They now reside near Lewisburg, West Virginia.

Elizabeth Woods Poage, married Col. Joel Mathews, of Selma, Alabama. A sad mortality attended her family, as few or none su e.

su- prisoner at Point Lookout July 6th, eath 1864. The only surviving sister is d.— Mrs. Mary McLaughlin, whose hus-oint band Andrew M. McLaughlin, Esq., ills- once owned the farm on which the DD- proposed city of Marlinton is pros. jected. They now reside near Lewisburg, West Virginia.

ck's Elizabeth Woods Poage, married Mr. Col. Joel Mathews, of Selma, Ala-am bama. A sad mortality attended ane her family, as few or none su e.

eir Col. Mathews was an ex^{IVE}live ca- planter and owned two o^{IVE}three te- thousand slaves. He ten^{ed} a irst colored regiment of eleven ^h tired ully able-bodied men to the Con^{ehicrate} ett, Congress, but the Govern^{oardi}me^{ce} was ved too punctilious to receive them as the most influential men in the county. Their only son that survived them was the Hon. Geo. H. Moffett, a lawyer, ex-Speaker of the West Virginia Legislature, and at the present time a distinguished journalist in Portland, Oregon.

One of her daughters, Mary Evelina, was married to Col. G. W. Thompson, a Confederate officer, who now resides in New York, employed in the management of the Standard Oil Company. Col. Thompson's sister is Mrs. Senator J. N. Camden.

Margaret Davies Poage married Mr. James A. Price and lived at Marlin's Bottom.

Of their eldest son, Wm. T. Price, the compiler of these sketches no special mention need be made.

James, Woods, Calvin and Andrew were in the Confederate army.

A good mother, Mary Warwick, was first married to Robert Beale, Esq., of Botetourt county, and resided on Elk, where he died leaving one child, Margaret Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Dr. Geo. B. Moffett, one of her sons. James Moffett is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company in New York. It was at her son's home Mrs. Moffett died a few years since.

Mrs. Beale was married the second time to Henry M. Moffett, Esq., the second Clerk of Pocahontas, and who was a most excellent man in all respects. At one time he was one of the most influential men in the county. Their only son that survived them was the Hon. Geo. H. Moffett, a lawyer, ex-Speaker of the West Virginia Legislature, and at the present time a distinguished journalist in Portland, Oregon.

One of her daughters, Mary Evelina, was married to Col. C. W.

no sons
dates r
their n someth self t
"old l
Mr.
and ac
cows,
own h render might Scott

Jon and, c turn l
the wa
was a
was o taking that sh could stances

Mr.
a glan
when smile l oppon
Jones l
the bri

the first intimation of her soldiers son's death was the newly prepared grave, and the arrival of the body for burial. Her other sons—Charles, John, Wallace and Edwin—were Confederate soldiers, distinguished for their fidelity to duty, and are all highly intelligent, much esteemed and influential citizens, residing in the Little Levels of Pocahtontas.

His Bos-Mrs. Alvin Clarke, and Mrs. George McNeel, near Hillsboro, and Mrs. Maggie Livisay, near Falling Spring, Greenbrier county, are her daughters. The second daughter, Mary Vance Poage, who is said to have borne a striking resemblance to her good mother, Mary Warwick, was first married to Robert Beale, Esq., of Botetourt county, and resided on Elk, where he died leaving one child, Margaret Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Dr. Geo. B. Moffett, one of her sons. James Moffett is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company the West Virginia Legislature, but was not permitted to serve, as he could not conscientiously take the prescribed oath. His two sons, Edgar and Leigh, reside in the Little Levels. Edgar is a commissioner of the Court and served a term as presiding officer. Leigh is a prosperous young citizen.

Henry Moffett Beard was a Lieut. in the Confederate service, and was for years among the most prosperous Pocahontas farmers. He died recently, lamented by an interesting family and a wide circle of attached friends. Samuel J. Beard, a prosperous farmer, resides in Missouri.

Joel Early Beard died in the war. His mother came to church one Saturday morning, of a sacramental occasion to the old brick church, and the first intimation of her soldier son's death was the newly prepared grave, and the arrival of the body for burial. Her other sons—

Whom still I hold but cannot see.

Art Thou the man that died for me?

The secret of Thy love unfold.

With Thee all night I mean to stay,
And wrestle till the break of day."

Mrs. Poage's eldest daughter, Rachel Cameron, was married to Josiah Beard, Esq., of Locust, Pocahontas county. At 18 years of age Mr. Beard was a Ruling Elder in his church, and he was the first Clerk of Pocahontas Court. During the late war, when over seventy years of age, he was taken prisoner by Federal troops. Something was said to hurt his feelings and he challenged the whole squad to single combat. Their family numbered eight sons and three daughters. Hon. Wm. T. Beard, the eldest, was very liberally educated and became an honored, influential citizen. He was elected to the West Virginia Legislature, but was not permitted to serve, as he could not conscientiously take the prescribed oath. His two sons, Ed-

near
was near a sco
Th
Mess
Woo
and old J Edr
Caro
Mr.
Hur
chu gen
M guil
Ear
Mrs
the wic
Geo son
M
dau

who is him—Hannah and Charles. The sold minis- daughter, Hannah Gatewood, was fort coun- married to John W. Warwick Esq. M Eliza- Her only surviving child is Sally a n rried Gatewood, who became Mrs. Dr. sion well, John Ligon, of Clover Lick, in Po- C cahontas. Mi

Hull Mrs. Gatewood was married the set dred second time to Major William Poage. ye Four daughters and one son survived He Mc- her. Mrs. Poage died one morning far citi- just at the dawning of the day. ma not Feeling death near she requested Co ew- Jennie Johnson, who afterward be- M hur came Mrs. Jennie Lamb, to sing her sla favorite hymn : wa

ar- "Come, O Thou traveler unknown, re of Whom still I hold but cannot see. ne ent Art Thou the man that died for me? w ski The secret of 'Thy love unfold. ne well With Thee all night I mean to stay, a ng And wrestle till the break of day." M

th. Mrs. Poage's eldest daughter, M Rachel Cameron, was married to bridge county. She was a very superior person, and her recent death is sincerely and widely mourned.— Mrs. Edgar Beard near Mill Point and Mrs. Captain Edgar near Hillsboro are their daughters.

MRS. NANCY WARWICK GATEWOOD-POAGE AND HER DESCENDANTS.

This member of Jacob Warwick's family was first married to Mr. Thomas Gatewood son of William Gatewood, the husband of Jane Warwick, at Mountain Grove. Their home was at Marlin's Bottom, Pocahontas county. Mr. Andrew Gatewood was the only child of this first marriage. He married Miss Sally Moffett, sister of Henry M. Moffett, Esq. A son and a daughter survived too.

prosperous citizen, residing near Hillsboro.

Capt. Andrew Gatewood McNeel raised a company for the Confederate service. He died a few years since much lamented.

John Adam McNeel, was a soldier, studied law, and now resides on a fine estate in Rockbridge county.

Eliza their eldest daughter was married to Rev. Daniel Penick, an eminent Presbyterian minister in Rockbridge county. She was a very superior person, and her recent death is sincerely and widely mourned.—

Mrs. Edgar Beard near Mill Point and Mrs. Captain Edgar near Hillsboro are their daughters.

MRS. NANCY WARWICK GATEWOOD-
POAGE AND HER DESCENDANTS.

This member of Jacob Warwick's family was first married to Mr. Thomas Gatewood son of William

Can
M
Mr.
Mar
O
the
spec Ja
wer Ja
Chas
twic tena priso 1864.
Mrs. band
once propo jected isburg Eliza
Col. J

...th, or Hittsboro, are their daughters.

Charles Cameron See was among the most popular and widely known citizens of Randolph county, an earnest friend of liberal learning and a zealous christian gentleman. His wife was a daughter of Dr. Bosworth, of Beverly.

Mr. Peter See, a prosperous and influential citizen of Augusta county, and a Ruling Elder in the old stone church, is a son of Charles C. See.—Mr. Peter See's wife, Mary, is a daughter of Mrs. Eliza Gamble, one of Margaret Warwick See's daughters, whose husband Dr. Thomas Gamble, was an eminent physician, a Ruling Elder in the Augusta church, and a very influential citizen of Augusta county.

Hannah See became Mrs. Henry Harper near Beverly, Margaret became the wife of Hon. Washington Long, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Randolph county in his day, and Dolly was married to the Hon. John Hutton, of Huttonsville, W. Va. This gen-

were
guisho
and an esteem residin cahont

Mrs.
McNe
Maggi
Green
ters.

Vance
borne good r
first m of Bo Elk, w
Marga
Mrs. I
sons.

ploy c in Nev home since.

Mrs. time to second
was a pects

Harper near Beverly, Margaret became the wife of Hon. Washington Long, one of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of Randolph county in his day, and Dolly was married to the Hon. John Hutton, of Huttonsville, W. Va. This gentleman was a member of the Randolph Court, and a member of the West Virginia Legislature, and did as much as any other man toward removing the disabilities of Southern sympathizers. Rachel Cameron See became the wife of the Hon. Paul McNeel, of Pocahontas county. He amassed an immense landed estate, was for years a leading member of the Court, sheriff of the county, and was a member the Virginia convention that passed the ordinance of secession.

Their oldest son, George, was a Confederate soldier, and is a popular and prosperous citizen, residing near Hillsboro.

Capt. Andrew Gatewood McNeel raised a company for the Confederate service. He died a few years since in New home place.

Mrs. time to second was a n spects. the m county. them w a lawyer Virgin present ist in P

One c lina, w Thomps who no ployed Standar son's si Camden

Marga Mr. Jar Marlin's

Of the the com

out yonder," Jake—me coffe like
nake—"

her and the a-hangin on —broke the
—"
ed, with a

the feller's an under-

toed to'rd
t
with him,

ger, and

comin!
er, Jim?"
er, says,
"

"Your

S.

Jacob
ary

urged,

erest

known citizen, and was a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Church. Their daughter, Martha, was married to Uriah Hevener, Esq., near Green Bank, Pocahontas county. Mrs. James Renick near Falling Spring, Greenbrier county, is one of his daughters. Charles Mathews, Esq., of Summers county, W. Va., is his son. Mrs. Samuel B. Hanna, near Green Bank, Pocahontas, is a granddaughter of Andrew G. Mathews.

Sampson Lockhart Mathews married Miss Nancy Edgar, of Greenbrier county, W. Va., a very estimable lady indeed.

The town of Ronceverte now occupies the Edgar Homestead. Special mention was made of him and his worthy descendants in a former sketch.

MARGARET WARWICK SEE AND HER FAMILY.

This daughter was married to Adam See, Esq., who lived near Huttonsville, Randolph county, W. Va. He was a successful lawyer, a very extensive owner of lands, and a devoted Ruling Elder in his church. Their sons were George, Jacob and Charles. Dolly, Ellza, Rachel, Han-

the Steacie
Mrs. Po
Rachel Can Josiah Bea
cahontas c age Mr. Be his church, of Pocaho late war, w age, he was troops. S his feeling wholesqu family nu daughters the elders cated and fluentia the West was not could not prescribed gar and I Levels.

the Court siding off young cit

Henry
in the Co for years Pocahont
cently, la

pendent
Dr. Jacob Mary

encouraged, an interest
published the letters titles, ad-
have such
In some more than he generous furance rea great written family, follow-
ary to public.
f Major al pro-
in the more
tion.
won

ed to

Hiltonaville, Randolph county, W.
Va. He was a successful lawyer, a very extensive owner of lands, and a devoted Ruling Elder in his church.
Their sons were George, Jacob and Charles. Dolly, Eliza, Rachel, Hannah and Margaret were their daughters.

George Sen's daughter, Georgianna, became the wife Capt. Jacob W.
Marshall who raised and commanded a very efficient cavalry company for the Confederate service.

Capt. Marshall was one of the original promoters of Marlinton, and is a member of the Pocahontas Development Company. Mrs. Emanuel Hull, of Marlinton, and Mrs. E. L.
Holt, of Hillsboro, are their daughters.

Charles Cameron Sen was among the most popular and widely known citizens of Randolph county, an earnest friend of liberal learning and a zealous christian gentleman. His wife was a daughter of Dr. Bosworth, of Bayly.

Mr. Peter Sen, a prosperous and influential citizen of Augusta county, and a Ruling Elder in the old stone young eld

Henry
in the Cu
for years Pocahont
county, I family a friends.

porous b

Joel
His mar-
riday in casion to the first son's des-grave, a for his Charles,
were Co-gulated and are esteemed residing enchant

Mrs. A McNeel, Maggie
Greenh
tera. Th
Vance P

HOTEL,

VA.

Proprietress.

all furnished ants and a
the markets
id to trans-
ders.

ES

ents.

S,
D, MD.

class style low and ished on Creigh,

o satisfy

BELL.

sons, has recently died a prominent business man in Loudon county, Va.

Lieut. Charles Cameron Gatewood, another son, now resides at the Big Spring, Pocahontas county, W. Va.
He was an officer in the Confederate service, Company F. 11th Virginia Cavalry, and ranked among the bravest of his comrades. He married Mary, daughter of Judge J. W.
Warwick. Lieut. Gatewood is a popular citizen much esteemed for his gentlemanly qualities.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS RE-SPECTING MRS. MARY WAR-WICK MATHEWS AND HER FAMILY.

This daughter married Sampson Mathews, Esq., and for years resided at Dunmore, Pocahontas county, W.
Va. Their children were Jacob Warwick, Andrew Gatewood, Sampson Lockhart and Mary Warwick.

Mr. Jacob W. Mathews lived on Sittington's creek near Dunmore. He married a daughter of Rev. John service.

much is

John studied fine esta

Eliza
ried to nent Pr bridge perior p
is sincer
Mrs. Ed and Mrs boro are

MRS. NA
POAGE

This n
family
Thomas
Gatewoo
Warwick
home wa hontas c wood wa marriage Moffett, s
Esq. A s

LEWISBURG, WES

McCue, of Augusta county, who is known in history as a pioneer minister in Greenbrier and Monroe counties, W. Va.

There were two daughters, Elizabeth and Mary. Elizabeth married Capt. Felix Hull, of McDowell, Highland county, Va. Capt. Hull raised a company of two hundred men. He died in the service.

Mary was married to Mr. Joseph McClung, a prosperous Greenbrier citizen and resided in the Richlands not far from Williamsburg. Mrs. Newman Feamter, in the Blue Sulphur district, is her daughter.

Andrew G. Mathews, Esq., married Mary Warwick See, one of Margaret See's daughters, and spent most of his married life in Pulaski county, Virginia. He was a well known citizen, and was a Ruling Elder in the Presbyterian Church. Their daughter, Martha, was married to Uriah Hevener, Esq., near Green Bank, Pocahontas county. Mrs. James Renick near Falling Spring, Greenbrier county, is one of his him—Hann daughter, married to Her only Gatewood John Lige cahontas.

Mrs. G second th Four daug her. Mrs just at th Feeling Jennie Jo came Mrs favorite t

“Come, Whom stil Art Thou The sec With The And wrest

Mrs. Rachel C Josiah B cahontas age Mr. E his chureh of Pocah and Treasurer.

DR. H. H. HATHTON.

A SON.

DRG

STABLE.

Lewisburg Hose horses and ention paid to nable rates.—
el.

G HOTEL,

N. VA.

Proprietress.

well furnished rvants and a
at the markets yald to tranardens.

nes

ments.

RES
AND MD

semi-annual convention in charge of a church. Miss Kate Blas their daughter is a very efficient missionary teacher in Brazil, South America.

Col. Samuel V. Gatewood married
Miss Eugenia Massie near Alleghany Falls, Va. He resided on the old Mountain Grove homestead, and built the fine brick mansion there.

Their daughter, Susan, became Mrs.
William Taliaferro, of New Port, Rockbridge county, Va., and Mary Pleasants became Mrs. Samuel Gaulle, once proprietor of the Hot Springs, Virginia.

William Blas Gatewood, one of the sons, has recently died a prominent business man in Loudon county, Va.

Lieut. Charles Cameron Gatewood,
another son, now resides at the Big Spring, Pocahontas county, W. Va.
He was an officer in the Confederate service, Company F, 11th Virginia Cavalry, and ranked among the
bravest of his comrades. He married Mary, daughter of Judge J. W.
Warwick. Lieut. Gatewood is a popular citizen much esteemed for
his gentlemanly qualities.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS RE-
PECTING MRS. MARY WAR-WICK MATTHEWS AND
HER FAMILY.

This daughter married Sampson Mathews, Esq., and for years resided

removing the er sympathy See became Pant McNeel.
He amassed a tute, was for
of the Court, and was a member
tion that pa secession.

Their eldest rederate sold prosperous Hillsboro.

Capt. And raised a comp service. He much inment John Adam studied law,
fine estate in Eliza their c ried to Rev. J nent Presbyte bridge county

perior person, is sincerely at Mrs. Edgar B and Mrs. Capt
boro are their

MRS. NANCY W FOAGE AND

This membe family was Thomas Gate

ORE,

VA.

CO.,

gents

VA.

arge prop-

E.

LAW,

EST VA,

ircuit and
r. Collec-
He will he Circuit
ontas.

BLE CO.

Granite
ents and ard, Lawn Correspon-Lewisburg

KINS, caurer.

TRATTON.

N.

TABLE

INDEPENDENT and perhaps more will be in the proposed publication.

MRS. JANE WARWICK GATEWOOD AND HER DESCENDANTS.

This daughter was married to William Gatewood, of Essex county, Va., a near relative of President Tyler. Their home was at Mountain Grove, Bath county, Va.

Their sons were Warwick, Samuel V., and a daughter, Mary Jane.

Warwick Gatewood married Miss Margaret Beale, of Botetourt county, a relative of President Madison.—

Their daughter, Eliza, became Mrs.
Judge James W. Warwick near the Warm Springs, and Catherine be-Mrs. Charles Bias, once proprietor of the Red Sweet Springs. Mr. Bias was rescued, when an infant, from a wrecked ship, and is supposed to be of Portuguese parentage. One of their sons, James W. Bias, was a very promising candidate for the ministry and died in North Carolina, where he was spending a seminary vacation in charge of a church. Miss Kate Bias their daughter is a very efficient missionary
teacher in Brazil, South America.

Col. Samuel V. Gatewood married
Miss Eugenia Massie near Alleghany
Falls, Va. He resided on the old wife was a c worth, of Boy

Mr. Peter S
influential citi
and a Ruling church, is a s
Mr. Peter S
daughter of M Margaret Wa
whose husban
was an emine Elder in the very influent county.

Hannah Se Harper near came the wife Long, one c most influent county in hi married to th of Huttonsvi tleman was a dolph Court, West Virginia
as much as a
removing the ern sympathiz Sec became t
Paul McNeel,
He amassed a
tate, was far y
of the Court, sh

URA, 50c.; SOAP,
ed by the FOTTER toS, Boston.
es." 64 pages, 50
mailed free.

ch, chapped, and LA SOAP.

IND BACK,
pains and weak-
minute by the Plaster. The plaster.

ss Cards

AW,
W. VA.
of Green-

MS,
W.

Courts of ing coun-Federal
y12-1y.

ias,

RE,
VA.

But within of his eyes, says he, "Your coffee's mighty hot."

MISCELLANEOUS.

For the Greenbrier Independent.

Memorials of Major Jacob Warwick and Mrs. Mary V. Warwick.

The writer was greatly encouraged, and much gratified by the interest manifested in the sketches published in the INDEPENDENT. The letters received from various parties, advise him, by all means, to have such valuable material published in some permanent form. He is more than willing to do so, provided the generous decendants of these persons furnish the pecuniary assistance requisite. The writer feels a great deal more should have been written concerning Mr. Warwick's family, and he wishes to publish the following particulars as supplementary to the sketch already given the public. Should it please the friends of Major Warwick to have a memorial prepared, all that has appeared in the INDEPENDENT and perhaps more will be in the proposed publication.

MRS. JANE WARWICK GATEWOOD

MARGARET H

This dau
Adam See,
Huttonsvill
Va. He w very extens a devoted R
Their sons
Charles. D
nah and M
ters.

George S
hecame th Marshall w a very effie
the Confed

Capt. Ma
nal prom a member opment C
Holt, of M Holt, of H
ters.

Charles C
the most po citizens of earnest frie
a zealous ch wife was a worth, of B
Mr. Peter